United States Attorney Deborah R. Gilg announced that Jaron Jarome Redowl, 22, of Sioux City, Iowa, was sentenced in Omaha on June 10, 2011, to ten months of imprisonment and three years of supervised release by Chief United States District Court Judge Joseph F. Bataillon for burglary on the Santee Sioux Indian Reservation. While on supervised release, Redowl will serve three months of home detention. Redowl was further ordered to pay restitution in the amount of $597.

Redowl broke into the Takoja Tipi Daycare on the Santee Sioux Indian Reservation in June of 2009. Redowl removed a 42 inch Vizio HDTV from the premises and took it to Lincoln, Nebraska, where he traded it for methamphetamine.

This case was investigated by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development Office of Inspector General.
